

TIA Policy on U.S. Government Restrictions

It is the policy of the Telecommunications Industry Association (TIA), which may be changed from time to time at TIA's sole discretion, that no person—including any individual, firm, government entity, or other association or organization—currently listed on the U.S. Department of State's AECA Debarred List; the U.S. Department of Commerce's Denied Persons List, Entity List, or Military End-User List; or the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Foreign Sanctions Evaders List, Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List, or any entity owned, directly or indirectly, 50 percent or more, individually or in the aggregate by one or more blocked persons (collectively, "Restricted Party") shall be eligible to be certified to this Standard by an accredited SCS 9001 Certification Body (CB).
